Northern California National Bank Announces New Board Member

The Board of Directors of Northern California National Bank (NCNB) is pleased to announce the appointment of Lisa Speegle as an independent director of the Bank.

“Lisa is an excellent leader in the Charter School and Public Education community,” said Todd Lewis, NCNB President/CEO. “We are very happy she has joined our Bank and are confident she will be a great addition to our Board.”

Lisa is currently employed by Nord Country School as their Chief Business Officer. In this capacity she performs Business Services for multiple charter schools in Butte County. In 2008, she served as Treasurer on the founding Board of the Forest Ranch Charter School. Lisa is viewed by many as a Charter School expert in the Chico and Butte County region. Her previous business experiences are numerous, including banking, retail management, office management and non-destructive testing power plant inspection services.

Northern California National Bank is a locally owned and operated Bank serving the needs of businesses and individuals in Northern California since 2006. NCNB continues to grow its net income and asset base, while maintaining tremendous asset quality and a strong capitalization rate.
